WORDS FROM THE WIGGINS

Jim and Barbara Wiggins, Chapter Directors

George, Barbara, and I attended the Texas District Mid-Winter Roundup on Saturday, January 25th at the YO Ranch in Kerrville. Kudos to the Texas District Staff for putting this together. Interesting presentations were done on several programs.

George and I turned in the chapter financial paperwork for the year. Many thanks to George for making that an easy thing to do. He keeps excellent records.

Lynn Harris, the District Motorist Awareness Program officer, gave a presentation concerning what constitutes a MAP event. He stressed that it can be almost anything that might increase a motorist's awareness of motorcycles. This might be a discussion with a motorist at a gas station about your bike or a more formal event like having a table to distribute literature.

Tom Sprague, the district Webmaster, gave a presentation on a new club management software program that GWRRR is implementing called Groupworks. He will get invitations sent out and the contact database loaded so we can start to use it. It's supposed to ease communication at all levels of GWRRR.

For more info, see <https://www.groupworks.com/>. There's also an hour-long video on the Texas district website if you want to see how it's being set up.

George Augustas was recognized as our Chapter Individual of the Year as a token of his work for the chapter and support of GWRRR. Please congratulate him and thank him for his work when you see him next. Barbara Wiggins was sworn in as our chapter Membership Enhancement Coordinator.

GWRRR is offering a Free four-month trial membership. The application form is enclosed with this newsletter. Please let any prospective members know of this offer.

Chapter P (Granbury) is going to host their annual North Texas Bowling Challenge on Sunday, March 1st, 2020. This is a fun event, and they do a great job hosting it. See the flyer later in this newsletter. Even if you don't bowl, drop by and cheer on your favorite team.

The next Texas District Rally will be in Kerrville at the YO Ranch Hotel and Convention Center from 30 April to 2 May 2020. The latest info is available at <http://www.gwrra-tx.org/2019Info/2020RallyPage.php>. You can make reservations by clicking on the YO Ranch logo. Kerrville is a great area to ride. Registration forms should be on the Texas district website at GWRRR-TX.org soon.

Wing Ding 42 will be in Springfield, MO June 30 – July 4, 2020 at the Springfield Expo Center in Springfield, Missouri. You can register for the event “early bird” packages and for notifications when updates occur at the following site: <http://42.wing-ding.org/>. George has investigated hotels in the area. Contact George for more info if interested.

Get involved with the chapter! It's fulfilling and FUN.

Please email or call if you have an activity or ride you'd like to plan and we'll try to get it set up.

Avoiding Road Rage

By Scott Polhemus

I hope everyone enjoyed the warm weather last weekend; it was GREAT riding weather. While I was brainstorming topics for this month's article, I stumbled across this from another rider:

"On a recent ride through the Black Range I encountered 'road rage.' We had just come over Emory Pass, and it was a nice day for ride. It was deer season, and we had come across several hunters on the way. I was leading when a pick-up truck pulled onto the road in front of me. I saw the truck as it started to pull out into traffic so I slowed to let it in. I got suspicious right away because the driver took his time and acted like we weren't even there. I kept a close eye on them. There was a little girl and an older man in the back. The man kept waving and doing things I didn't like, so when I got the chance I decided to pass them and put some space between the pick-up and myself. When I looked into my rearview mirrors to see if it was okay to get back into the right lane, I noticed that they must of sped up. Right way I knew this was going to be trouble. After I got into the right lane, the pick-up pulled out to pass me. When they got even with me, I gently applied the brakes. This let them move in front of me faster then they expected to and put more space between them and me. After that, I saw a beer can come out of the driver's side. I decided the best thing to do is slow down even more. Finally, they went on down the road and nothing more came of it. Things could have gotten out of hand if I hadn't kept cool and just let them go. We have all had our experiences with it in one way or another. It might have been someone reacting to my headlight modulator, I have had them get upset with me over that."

We've all heard similar tales from friends or coworkers, or even had a similar encounter while driving OR riding.

According to the American Automobile Association, road rage has been increasing by 7% per year since 1990. An Australian study estimates that about half of all traffic accidents in Australia may be due to road rage. A study by Lex Research in the U.K. indicates that of Britain's some 2.8 million company car drivers, about 83% have been victims of some form of road rage during their working life. About 21% reported having been run off the road and 18% have been physically threatened by another driver!

Some attribute the rise in rage incidents to the recession and social and economic frustration. Gary Fite, Public Relations Manager for the Royal Automobile Club of Queensland, reckons that in many cases the cause of the anger that touches off rage incidents is bad driving. With an estimated 1,800 reported incidents of violent road behavior in the U.S. in 1996, it's a situation to be taken seriously. The incidents that trigger a Mad Max syndrome in the average driver are usually simple matters of discourtesy—for example, loud music, over-use of the horn, tailgating and changing lanes without signaling. These, of course, are usually just the trigger points. The actual causes can be traced back to all forms of stress, from being called into the boss's office for a friendly 'chat', to having just been dumped by your girlfriend. Pretty much, road warriors are the result of a flashpoint of all the accumulated stresses in one's life.

A 1995 study performed by the Road Safety Unit of the Automobile Association of Great Britain found that 90% of the drivers surveyed had experienced "road rage" incidents during the preceding 12 months. In this study, 60% of drivers admitted to losing their tempers behind the wheel during the previous year, and 1% claimed another motorist had physically assaulted them.

In early 1996, the AAA Potomac club commissioned a study from The Gallup Organization to investigate driver concerns. The study found that Washington area motorists felt more threatened by aggressive drivers than by drunk drivers; 40% of the respondents said that aggressive drivers "most endanger highway safety," while 33% identified drunk drivers as the primary risk. As for avoiding the Mad Max syndrome, here are a few tips from Dr Ricardo Martinez, Administrator of the U.S. National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, to help you through your journey:

- Don't take traffic problems personally.
- Avoid eye contact with an aggressive driver.
- Don't make obscene gestures (that makes you a player and suddenly it begins to escalate)
- Don't tailgate
- Use your horn sparingly (a polite honk can be misinterpreted)
- Don't block the passing lane (some drivers think you're doing something TO them when you do this)

So, let's all try to keep alert and give them a little space next time we run into a 'road rage' driver. And HAVE FUN OUT THERE! ☺

Chapter G2 Meeting Notes

Eight folks attended the First Tuesday Gathering of 2020 at Buffet Palace. They were Jim and Barbara, Dave and Shirley, George, and Rick Eaton. We welcomed a new couple—Bill and Darlene Jordan.

Jim and Barbara Wiggins presided over the Gathering.

The Gathering began with the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence.

Jim asked if anybody had been riding lately. Several said they had. Jim told about a patriot guard mission for a Navy veteran that had been killed.

Jim, Barbara, David, and Shirley had a day ride to Emory to eat at Sidekick's.

Bill said he and Darlene rode in a Christmas parade in Royce City. He was wearing a heated suit that ran on batteries.

Jim said he had been to see the world's largest spur in Abilene, Kansas. It is listed in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Jim encouraged the new folks to sign up for the four month trial membership in GWRRA. Jim discussed the Texas District Rally in May and Wing Ding 42 in July.

David and Shirley have decided to step down as assistants. Jim asked for volunteers for a Ride Coordinator and Assistant CD. We discussed the Levels Program for rider education.

The cheesecake auction brought in $21. Darlene was the winner.

Six of us met for the third Tuesday dinner at Napoli's in Wylie: Jim and Barbara, Rich and Vicki, George Augustas, and Chuck Daniels. We were joined later by Eddie and Christie Roberts and Gary and Becky Wheatley of Chapter P. They were there to talk about the North Texas Bowling Challenge to be held on March 1. (See flyer in this issue.)
